ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

The parties moved to file voluminous documents under seal or with redactions on the public record. See ECF Nos. 153, 163, 173, 186, 195, 198, 207, and 208. On March 3, 2021, I heard the parties on these motions, and on previous orders ordering sealing, see ECF Nos. 115, 116, 120 162, 166, and 204, on March 3, 2021. After full review, I held that the high threshold for sealing or redacting judicial documents, see Order, March 2, 2021, ECF No. 217, was not satisfied, both in the pending motions and in previous orders, and those previous orders are now vacated. The single exception are personal identities of individuals mentioned in filed papers. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2. As to these, anonymous references are to be used and are to be identified in a glossary filed under seal.

Accordingly, the parties are ordered to refile all documents referred to in this order, and to file a glossary of redacted names, consistent with this order. The Clerk of Court shall terminate the open motions (ECF Nos. 153, 163, 173, 186, 195, 198, 207, and 208), and vacate previous orders (ECF Nos. 115, 116, 120 162, 166, and 204)

There now should be only two open motions: Defendant's motion for sanctions (ECF No. 150), and Defendant's motion for summary judgment (ECF No. 97).

SO ORDERED.
